Here are the best medium companies to work for in North Texas

Aug 25, 2021, 12:01am CDT

The Dallas Business Journal is pleased to announce the second group of companies for its 19th annual Best Places to Work Awards. The list of winners was whittled down from over 380 nominated companies. These companies had the highest employee survey scores among their peer companies in their size category.

Selected companies were divided into five size categories based on employee count. Today, the Business Journal is revealing the recipients in the Small category. Rankings among these categories will be revealed at an event on Oct. 21.

MICRO (10-24 employees) category winners were announced on Monday.

SMALL (25-49 employees) category winners were announced on Tuesday.
