Texas Security Bank Names Casey Herr
Senior Vice President, Garland Market President

Dallas-based Texas Security Bank, an independent bank founded in 2008 by banking entrepreneurs who cater to the success of business owners, has named Casey Herr senior vice president and Garland market president.

A native of Electra, Texas, Herr grew up in an entrepreneurial family. Her parents owned four successful companies including a bank in Vernon, Texas. She graduated from Texas A&M with a bachelor's degree in finance and began her banking career 12 years ago as a commercial credit banking analyst with Wells Fargo in Plano and San Francisco. She transferred with Wells Fargo back to Plano as a relationship manager in its North Dallas commercial banking division. She founded Magnolia Financing Consultants, LLC, in 2009 with the goal of helping small and medium-sized businesses build investor and bank financial reporting packages. In 2011, she joined the Texas Security Bank team.

"The entrepreneurial spirit runs through me, that's who I am," says Herr. "So, it's not surprising that when I found Texas Security Bank, it was a perfect fit. I understand where the entrepreneurial spirit is coming from and what it means to employ many people in one community and make a real difference. My roots are from a smaller town, and I think Garland will be a great fit for me. My goal is to work with business owners directly, to help them learn options to capitalize their businesses or even realize how they can leverage their assets. Entrepreneurs are the backbone of this country."

"The Texas Security Bank Board of Directors and leadership team is excited by the promotion of Casey Herr to president of the Garland market," says Texas Security Bank chief executive officer and president, Craig Scheef. "Since joining Texas Security Bank in May of 2011, Casey has exhibited the ambition, leadership and talent necessary to become market president. Casey's entrepreneurial background provides her a unique understanding of the banking relationship from the business owner's perspective. Casey is an exceptional business woman and banker."
