Three D-FW locations

74 workers

The Dallas-based commercial bank says it invests more resources in business education for owner-managed businesses than other banks.

Workers say

“Everyone is on the same page and moving in the same direction.”

“I get to help entrepreneurs solve problems and take advantage of opportunities.”

”Management really does care about how you are as a person and your development. My work/life balance is important to them as well.”

“Management really does care about how you are as a person and your development.

”My work/life balance is important to them as well. When you feel like the management cares, you truly take ownership of your job and that in turn reflects in your work.”
