Texas Security Bank Announces Chief Banking Officer

Community Bank Elevates Leadership Team with Growth of Future Bank Leaders

(DALLAS) January 30, 2024– Texas Security Bank, a community commercial bank with a mission to elevate the champions of free enterprise, proudly announces changes to its executive leadership team effective January 30.

Ben Parkey, the Bank's Dallas Managing Director- Commercial Central, has been promoted to Chief Banking Officer. He has over 22 years banking experience as a Leader and Commercial Banker. Parkey was an integral part of Texas Security Bank's support during the PPP loan application process resulting in recognition as a 2021 Silver Stevie Award Winner for Sales and Customer Service and has extensive experience in both commercial banking and finance. Parkey has been instrumental in his leadership with the young commercial bankers, mentoring relationship managers, and assisting with loan structuring and underwriting processes, to help grow the organizations presence in the Dallas- Ft. Worth market.

Parkey joined Texas Security Bank in 2013 when the Bank was just over $200MM in assets and has played an important role in helping to grow the Bank to over $1.2B in assets. "Ben has grown with Texas Security Bank over the past ten years, and this promotion is part of our long-term planning. I am very proud of Ben and all that he has accomplished here at Texas Security Bank to earn this promotion," says Craig Scheef, CEO/Chairman of Texas Security Bank.

According to Drew Keith, President of Texas Security Bank, "Ben is the consummate commercial banker. We are fortunate to have Ben in this key role, with a career horizon of twenty years or more. It is a privilege to work with Ben in this leadership position."

As Texas Security Bank continues to strategically plan key initiatives, with a focus on future leaders the Bank believes that Parkey's expertise will play a pivotal role in fostering growth and leadership.
